Texas A&M University provides rooms and services to many categories of groups. The categories include combinations of Texas A&M students, faculty and staff, public organizations, private organizations, and state and local agencies. Depending on the definition, each category adheres to a corresponding rate schedule.

Categories are defined as follows:

Category #1: Events that include only members of Texas A&M student organizations. When organizations include more than their own members, there will be no charge if the event is less than 4 hours. TAMU departments that use the facilities for less than 2 hours fall in this category.

Category #2: Texas A&M University Student Organizations charging fees for their event or hosting a social event lasting longer than four hours.

Category #3: Texas A&M University departmental event lasting more than two hours or charging fees to attend.

Category #4: Texas A&M University System Parts and Affiliates

Category #5: Non-Texas A&M University Related

Special Building Openings
Events scheduled during times outside of the regularly scheduled hours of operation for the University Center will be assessed a special opening fee. If the building needs to be open earlier or later than regular business hours, an additional per hour charge will be assessed.
